

There is a flower

words by Emily Dickinson

music by Stefano Masera

1

There is a flo - wer that Bees pre - fer And But - ter - flies - de - sire - To gain the Pur - ple De - mo - crat The Hum - ming

8

15

Bird - as - pire - And What - so - e - ver In - sect pass - A

22

Ho - ney bear a - way Pro - por - tio - ned to his se - ve - ral

29 dearth And her - ca - pa - ci - ty Her face be roun - der 36

 than the Moon And rud - dier than the Gown Of Or - chis

43
 in the Pa - sture - or Rho - do - den - dron - worn - She

50
 doth not wait for June - Be - fore the World be 56

 Green - Her stur - dy lit - tle Coun - te - nance A - gainst the 63

 Wind - be seen -

70

77

Con - ten - ding with the 84

Grass - Near Kins - man to Her - self - For Pri - vi -

91

lege of Sod and Sun Sweet Li - ti - gants for Life - And 98

when the Hills be full - And ne - wer fa - shions blow -

105

Doth not re - tract a sin - gle spice For pang of jea - lou -

112

sy - Her Pu - blic - be the Noon - Her 118

Pro - vi - dence - the Sun - Her Pro - gress -

123

by the Bee - pro claimed In so - v reign - Swer - ve - less Tune -

129

The Bra - vest - of the Host - Sur - ren -

135

ding the last - Not e - ven of De - feat - a - ware - When can - celled by the Frost - When can - celled by the 148

141

Frost - When can - celled by the Frost -